

Elementary Christmas Message

December 2009

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom His favour rests."

Unfortunately, we live in a world that does not give glory to God anymore. We are surrounded by those who are sceptical, cynical and in search of peace in their own lives and for the world around them. Yet they turn their eyes and hearts away from God's wonderful plan for their lives and reject the notion that His Son Jesus was sent to save them from their sins.

Let us, as believers, continue to celebrate Jesus' birth with excitement and reach out once again this Christmas to those around us who desperately need Christ as their Saviour. We have the most precious gift that could ever be given to a human being. May you feel God's sense of peace and encouragement so strongly in your heart that you will feel compelled to spread the 'Good News' at this most special time of the year.

I pray that God be with you and your families this Christmas and that you may experience the pure joy of Christmas and the thrill of walking with God through His Son Jesus Christ.

Have a safe and exciting Christmas season and a Happy New Year!

Mr. T. Mansell
